Memories...

The bridge to the past

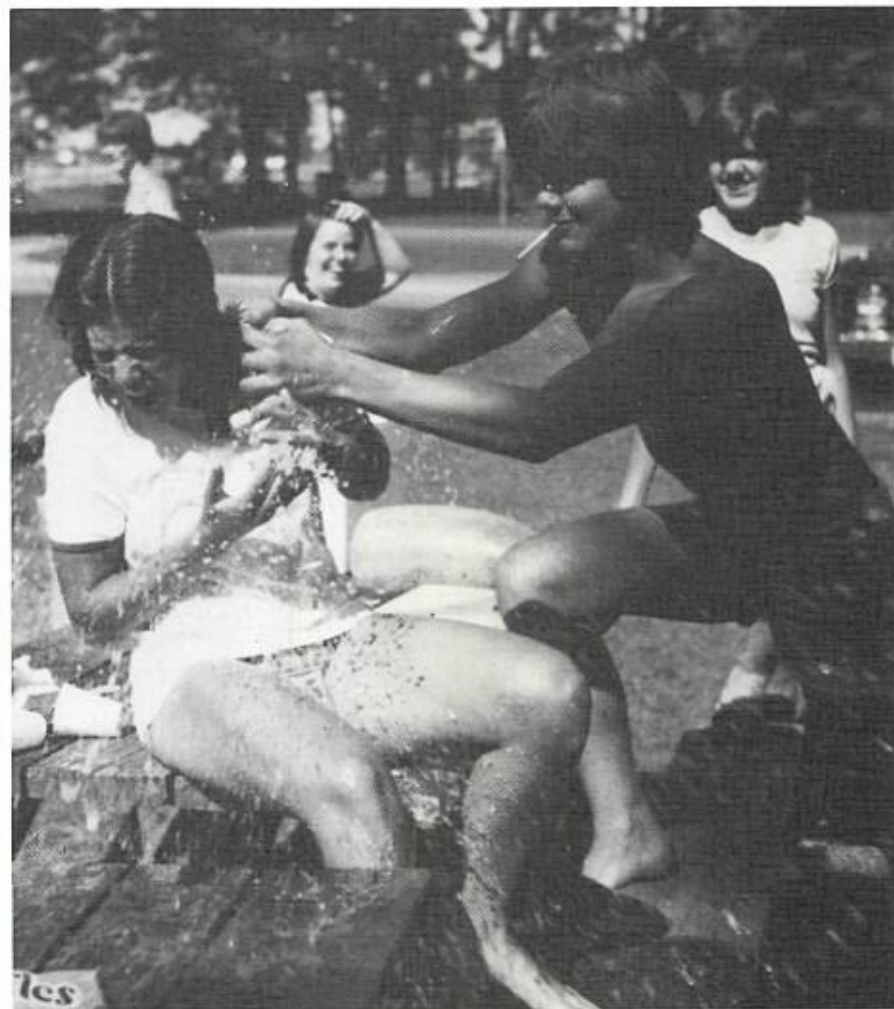

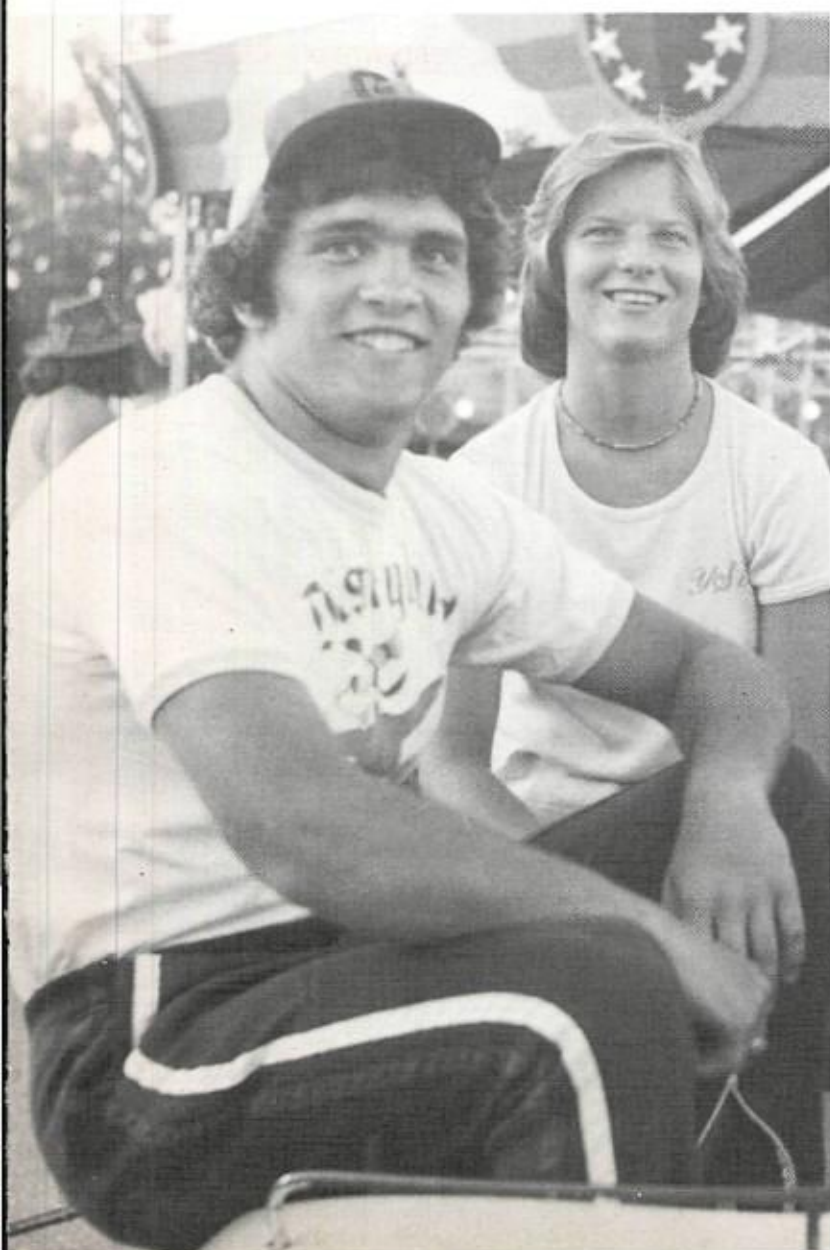

Here we shared our hopes . . .

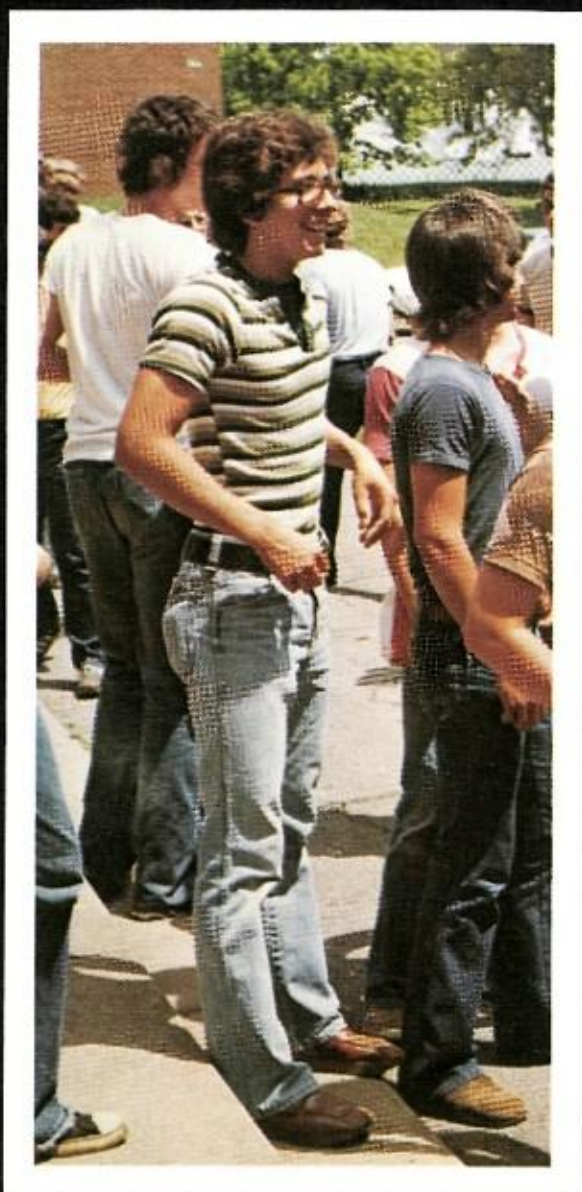

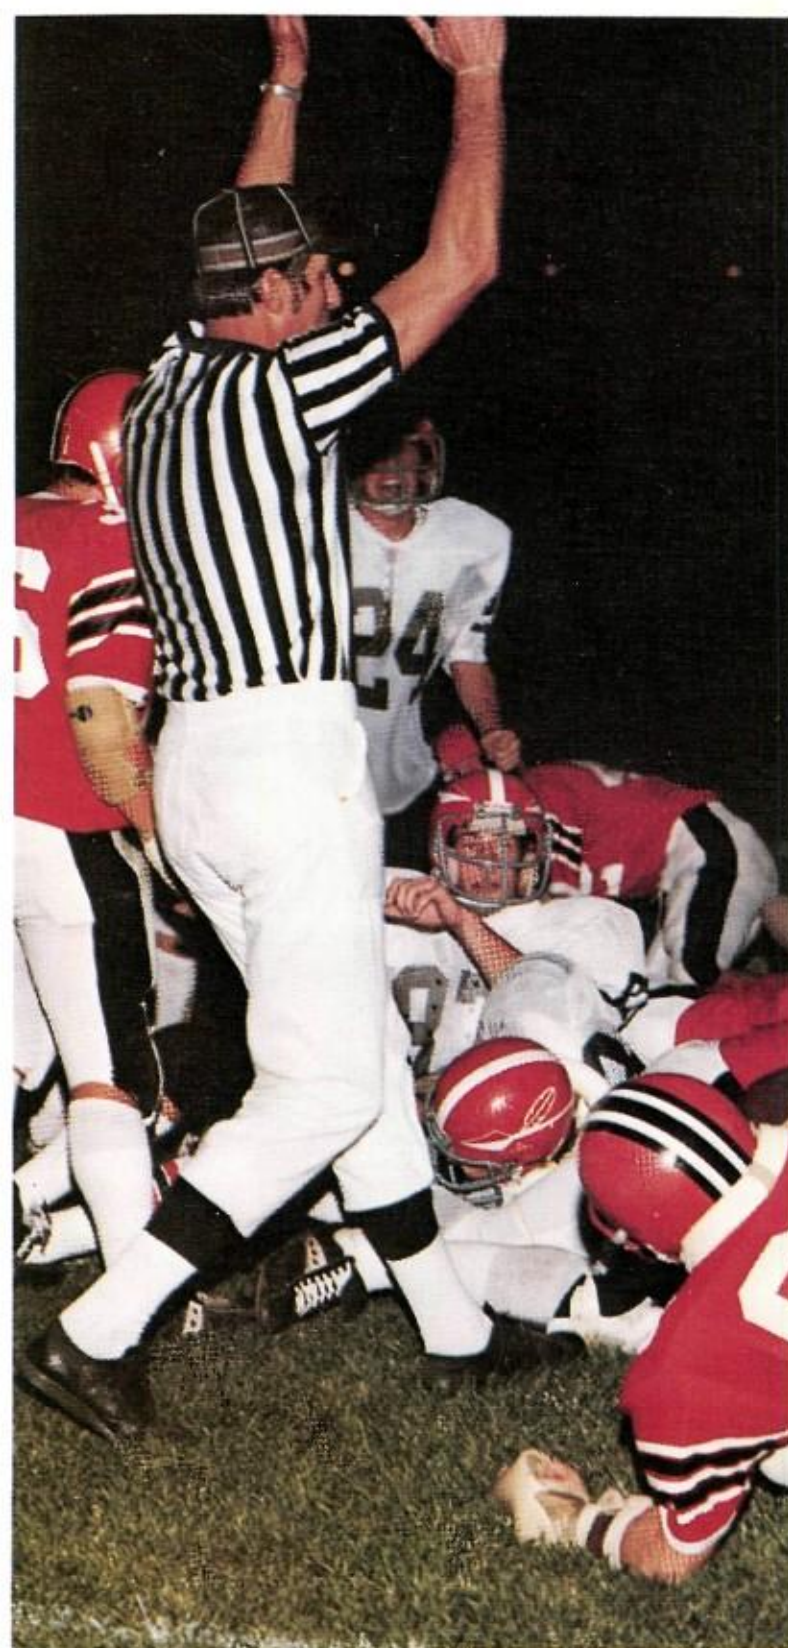

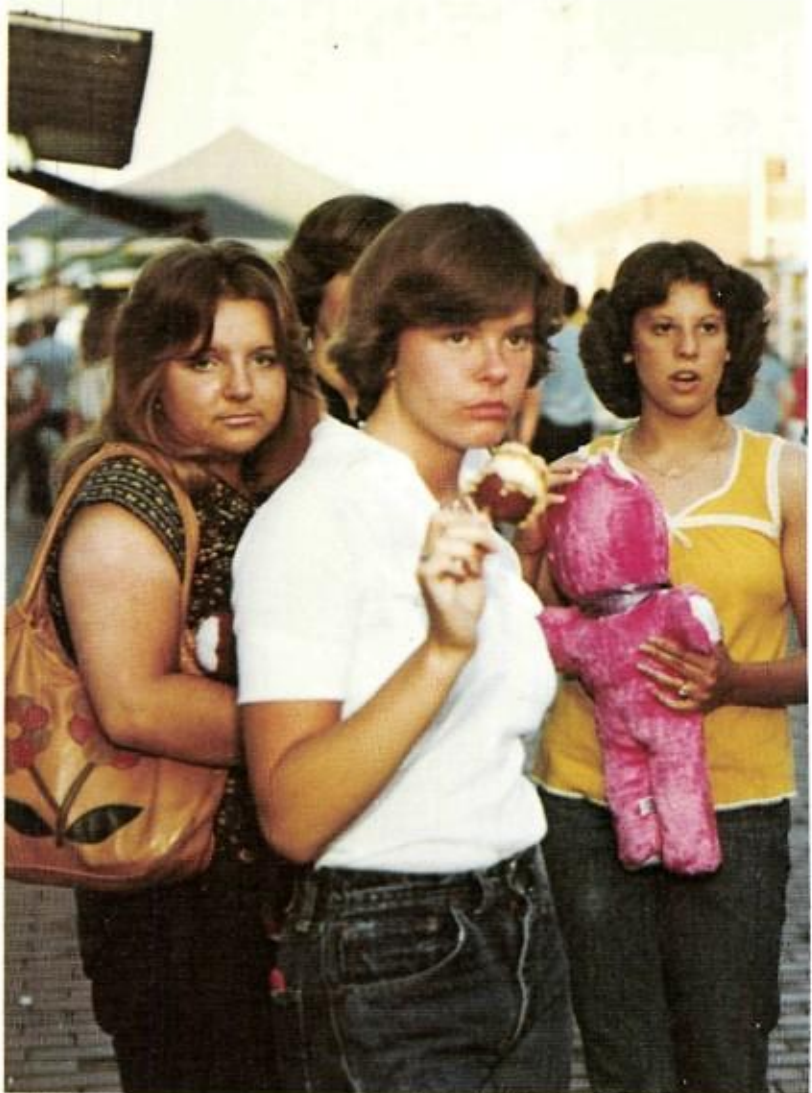

our dreams . . .

the good times . . .

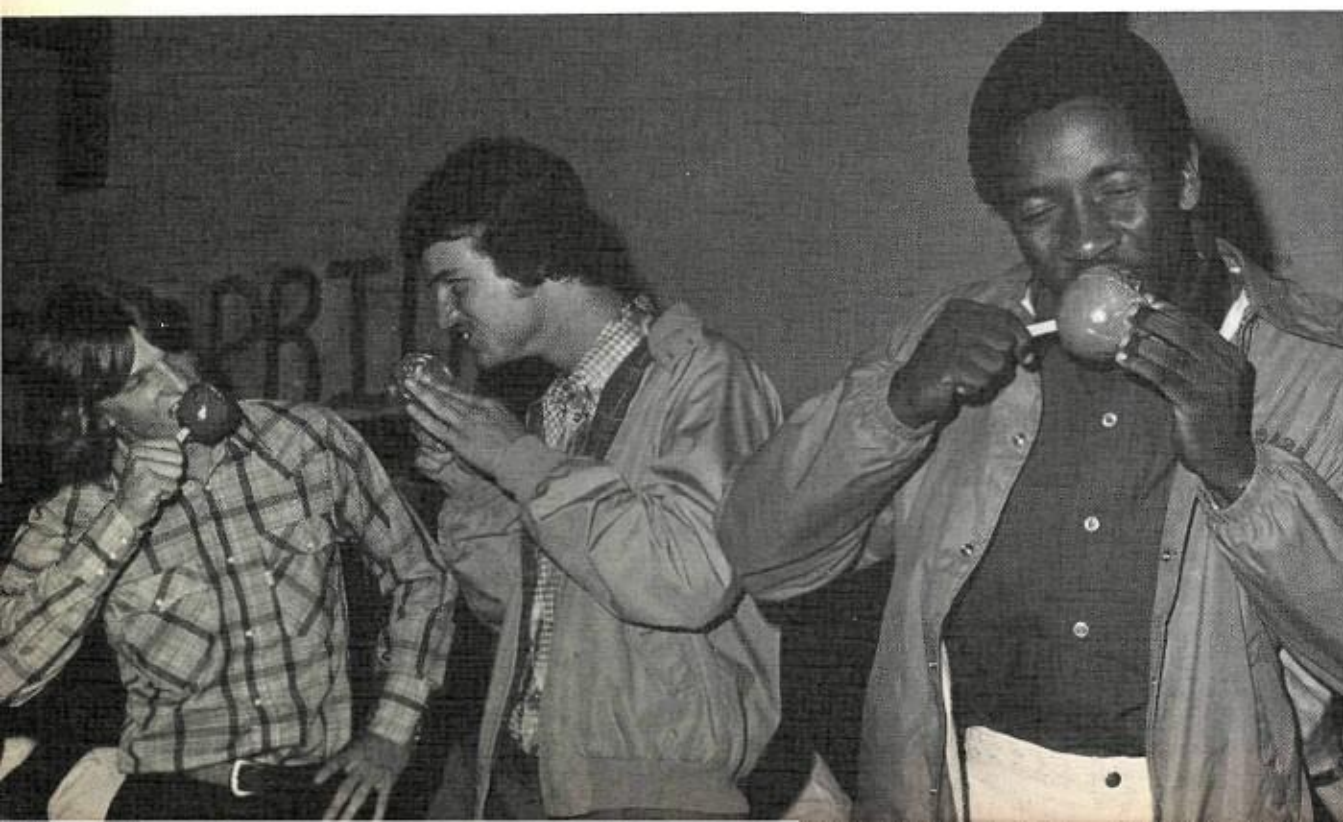

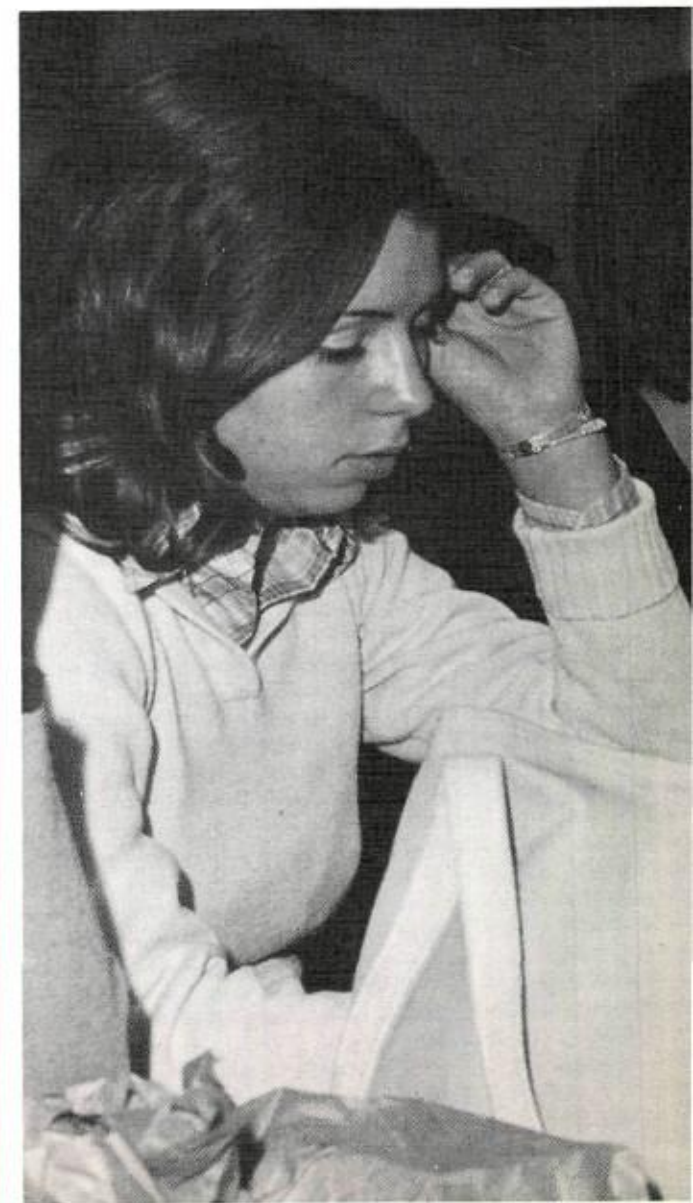

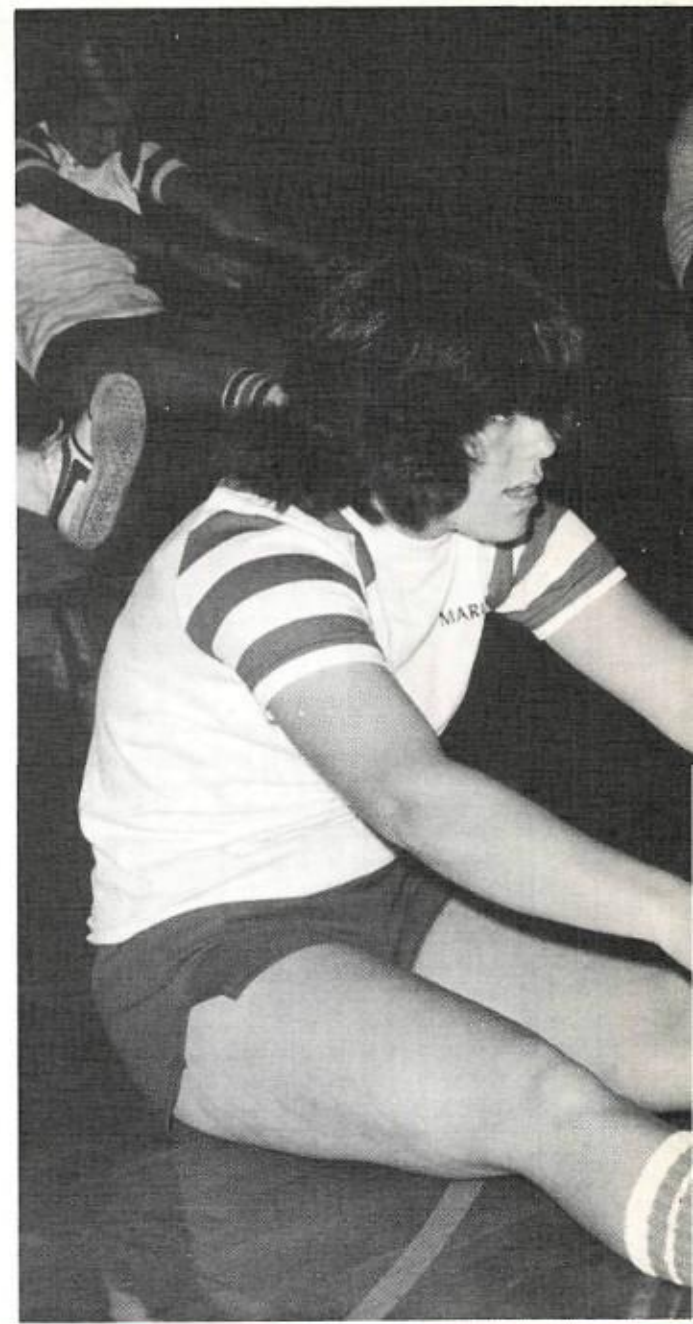

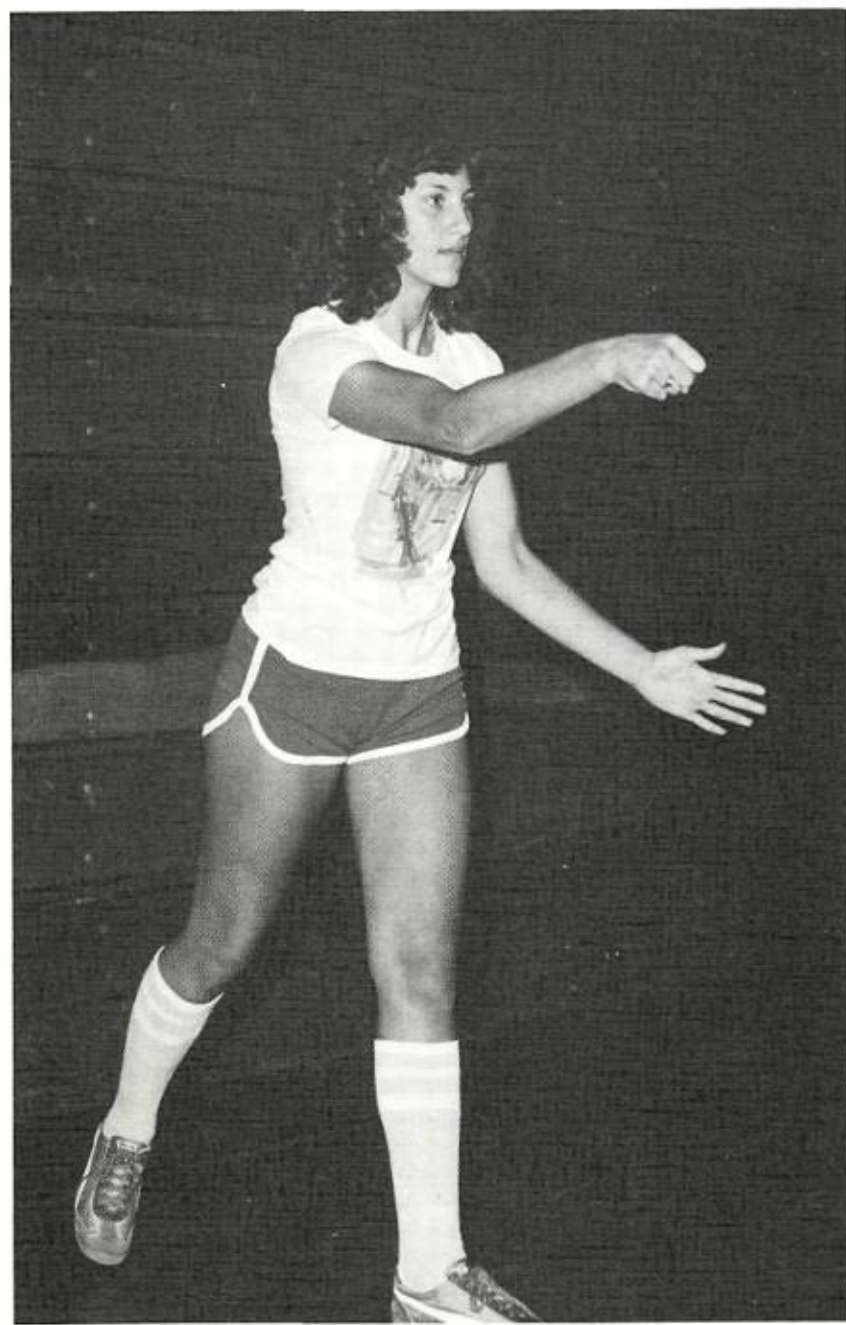

We rejoiced together in our victories

and grew closer to each other
through our defeats.

Learning by our failures

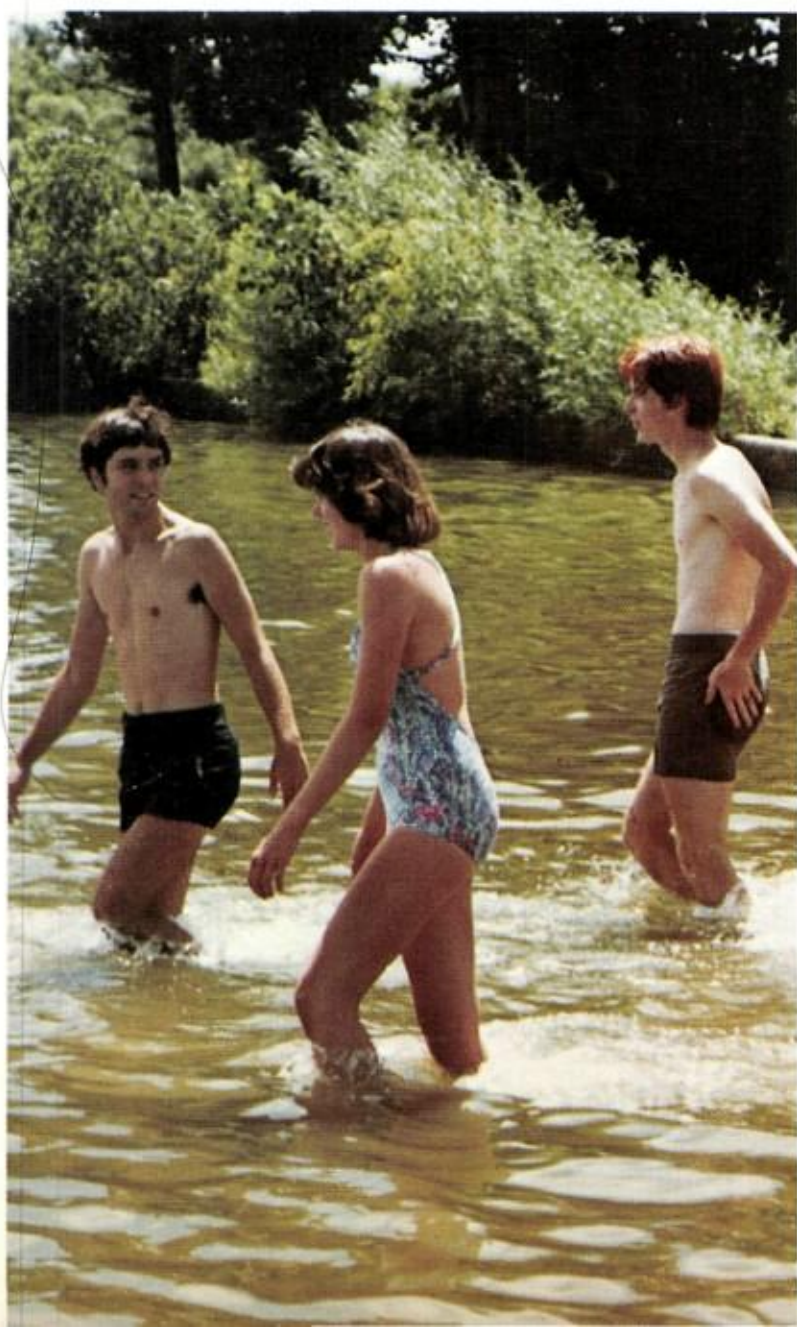

and successes.

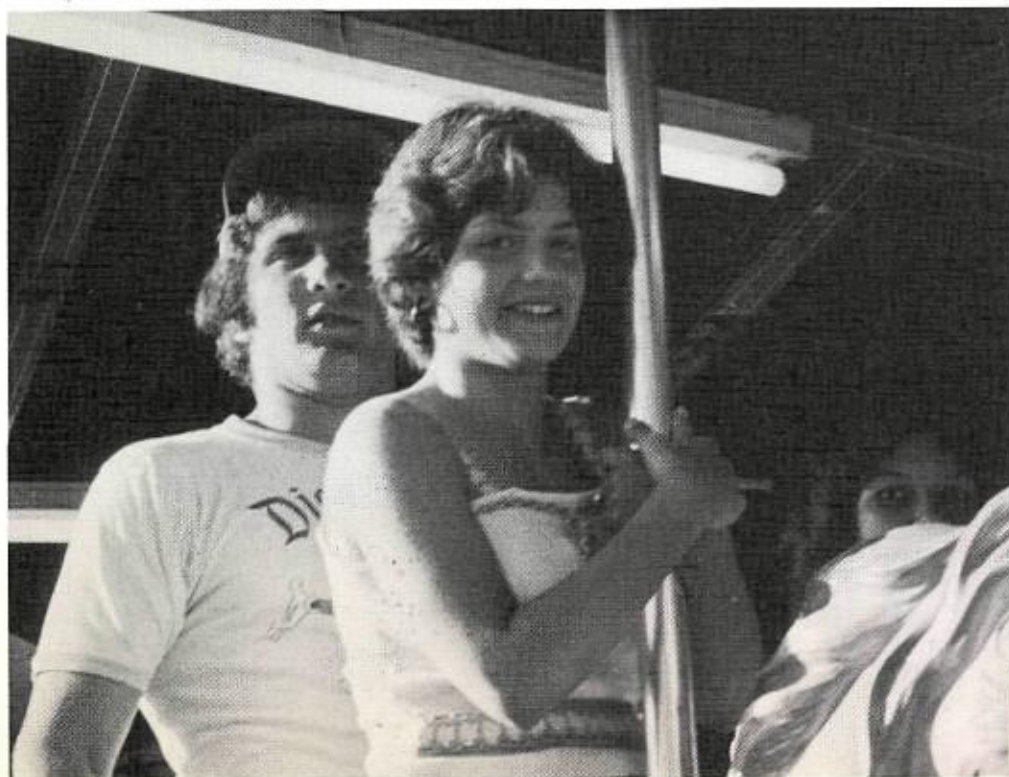

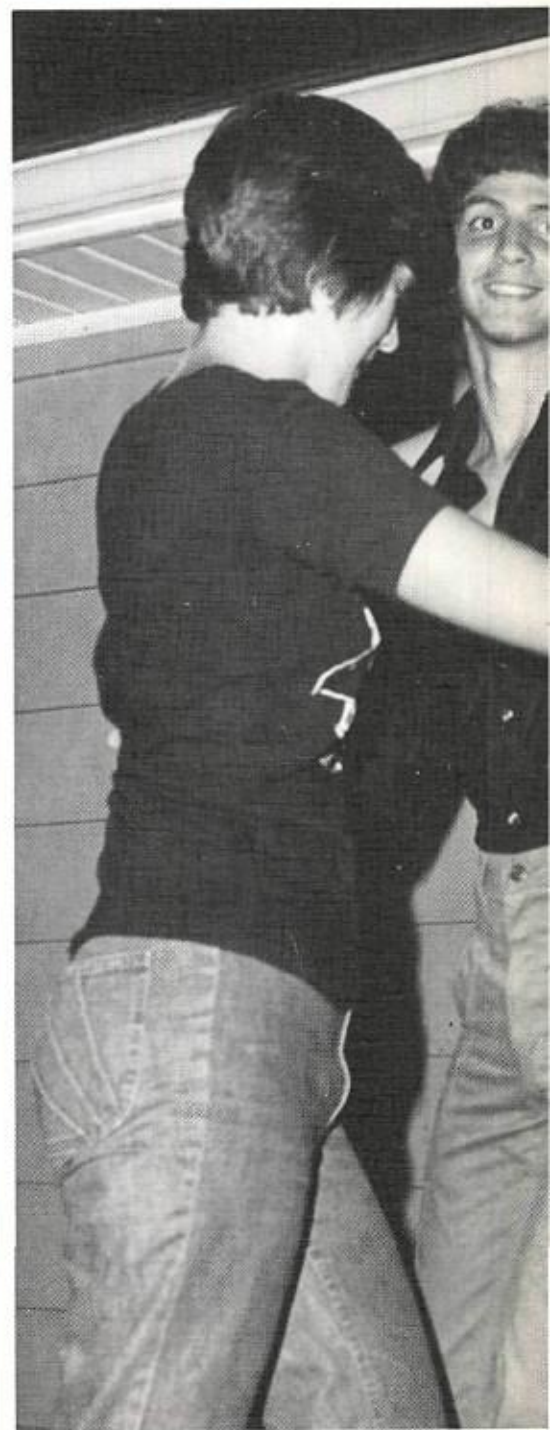

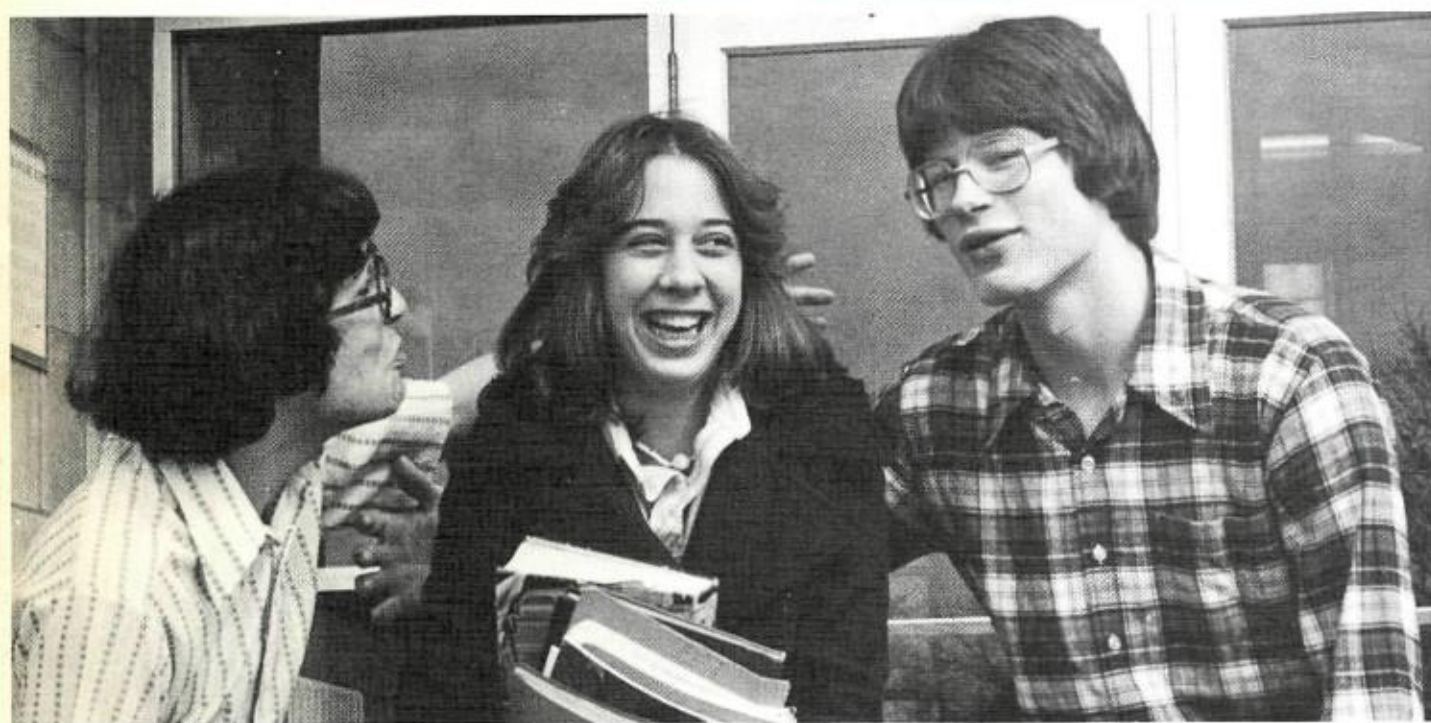

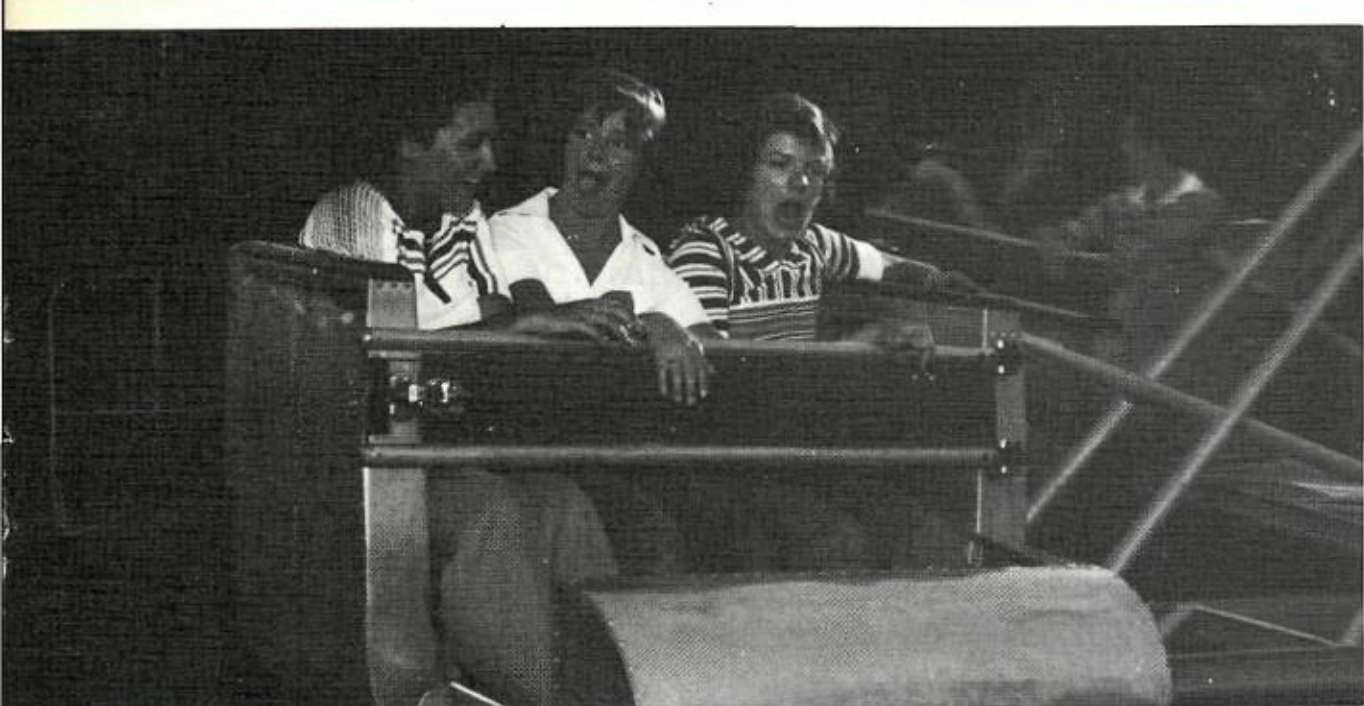

Our lives were shaped

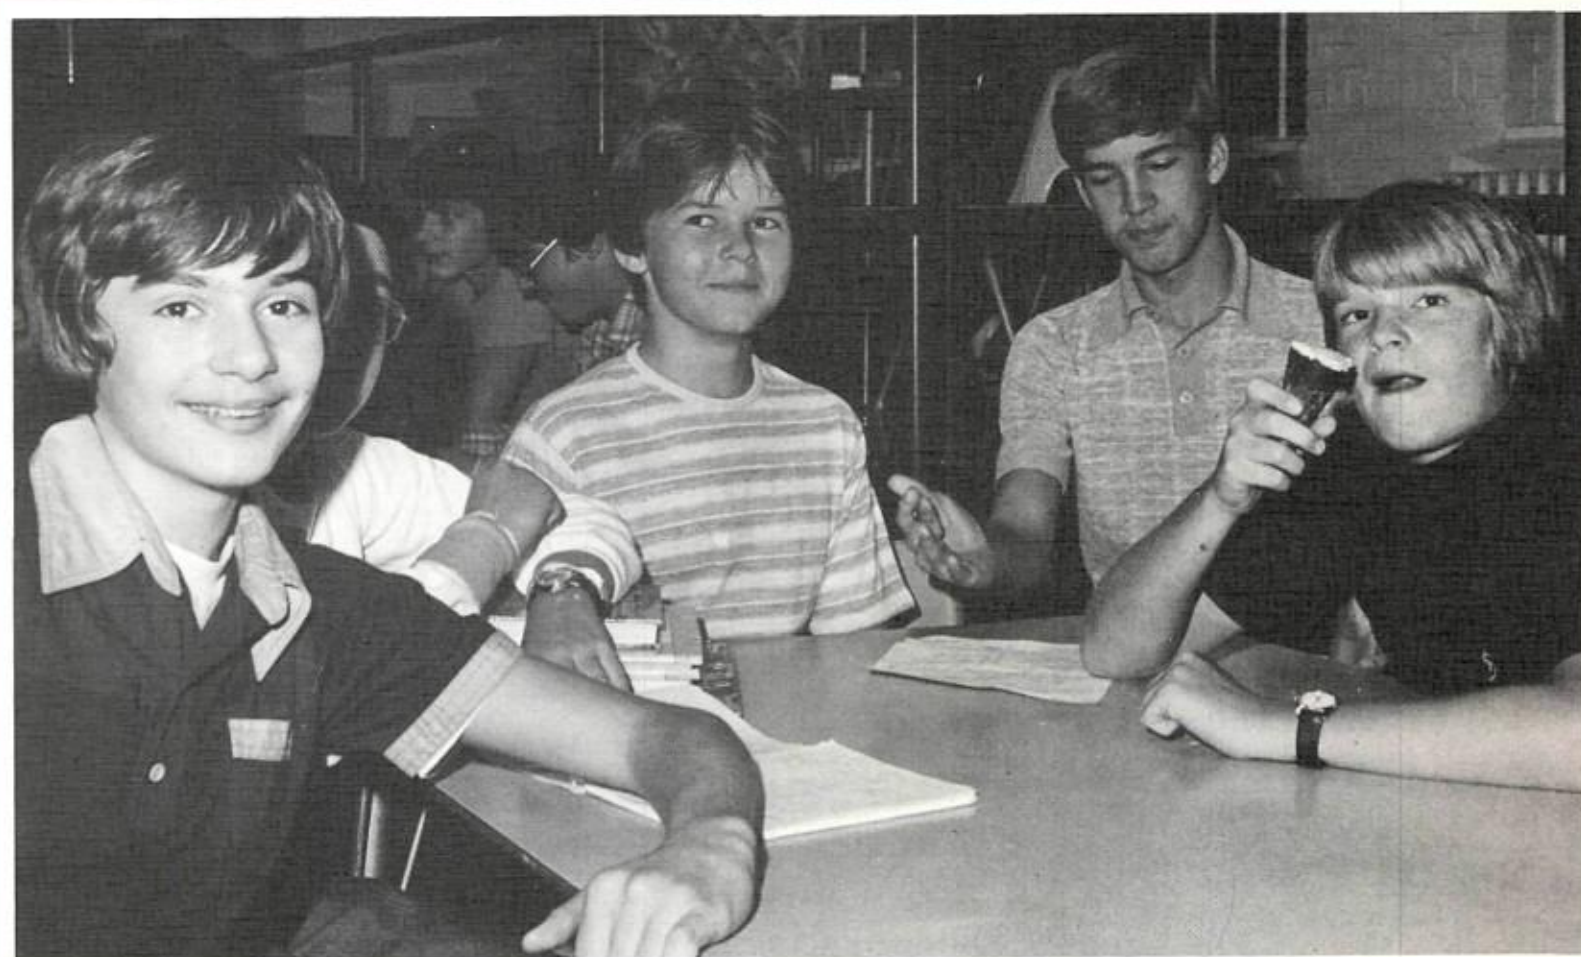

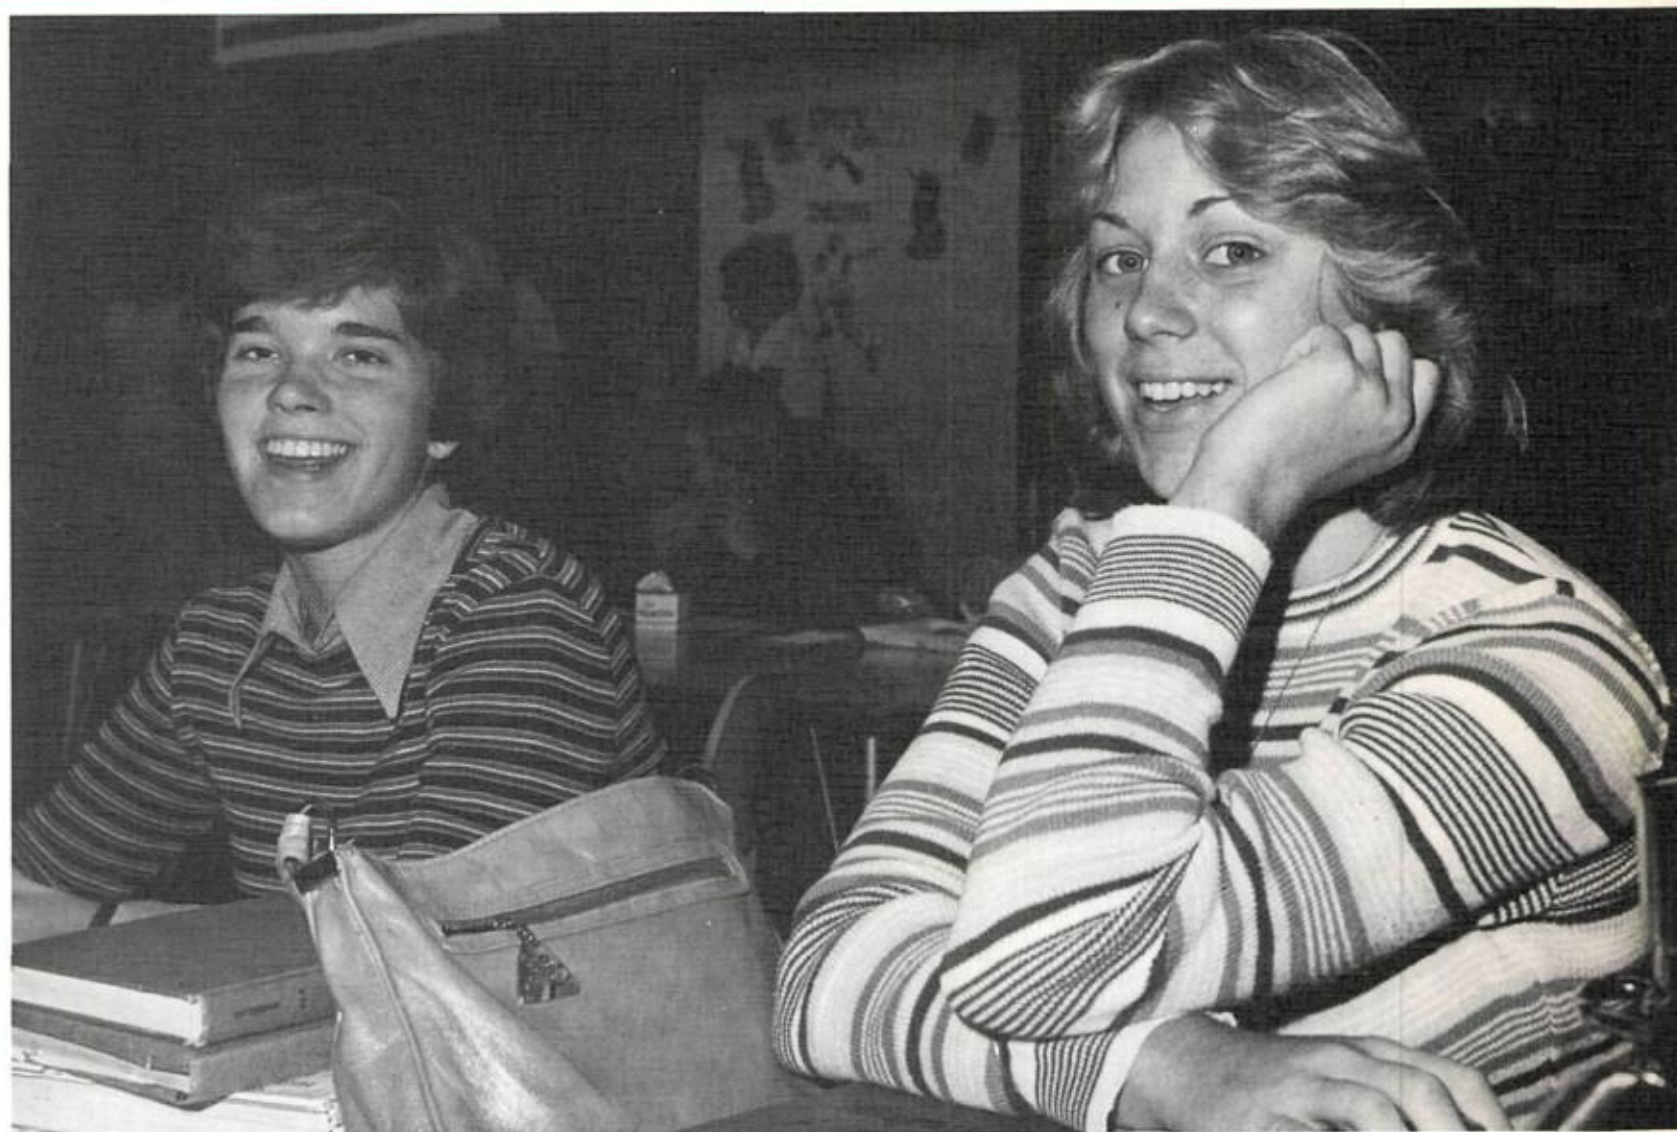

by Girard High

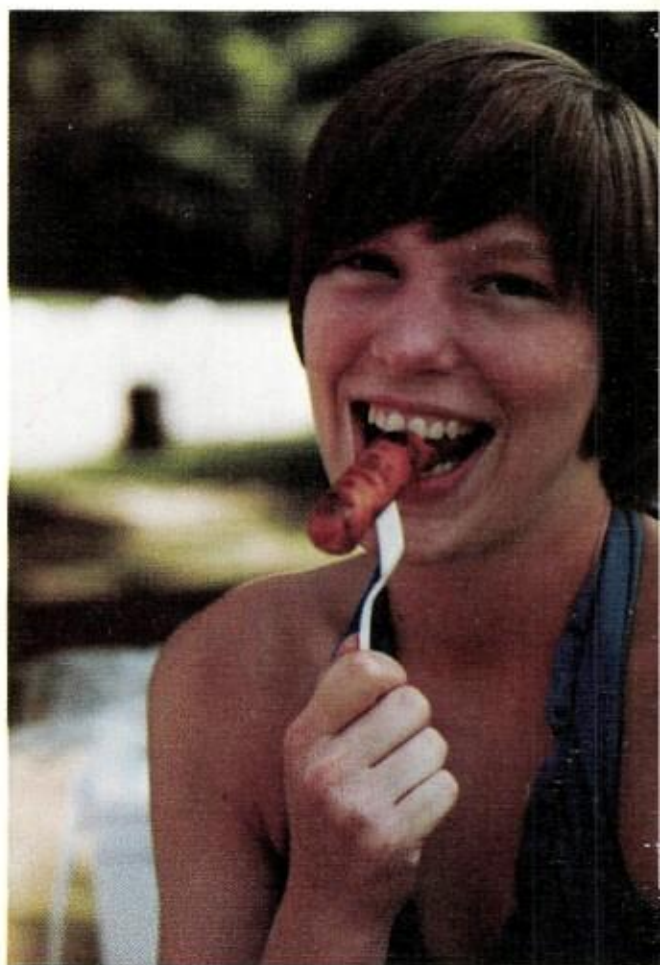

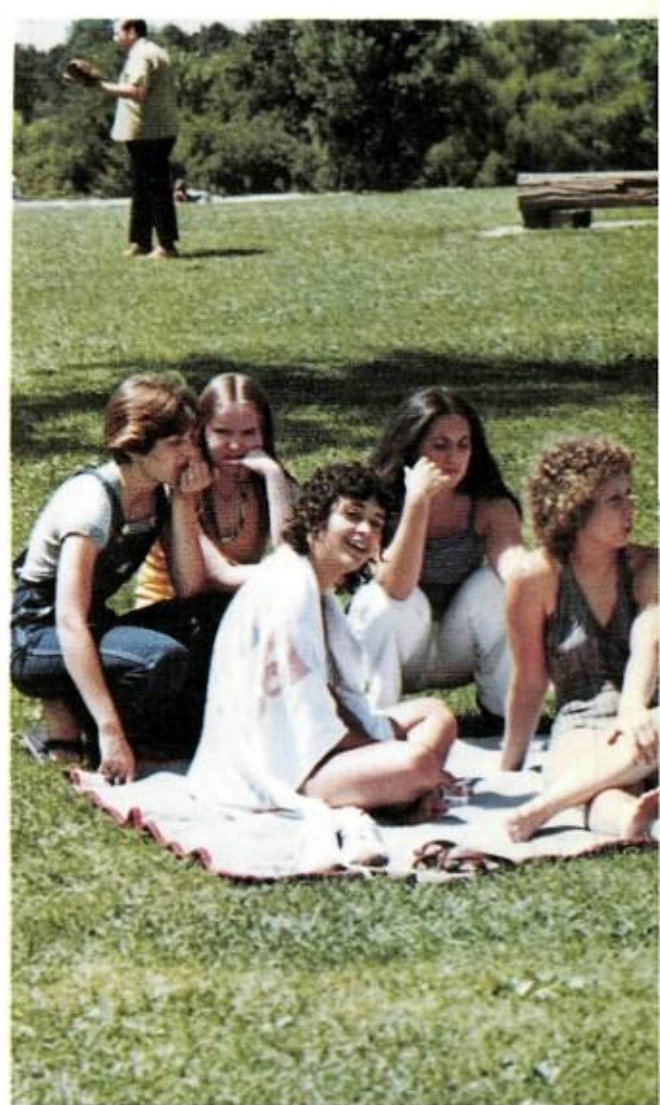

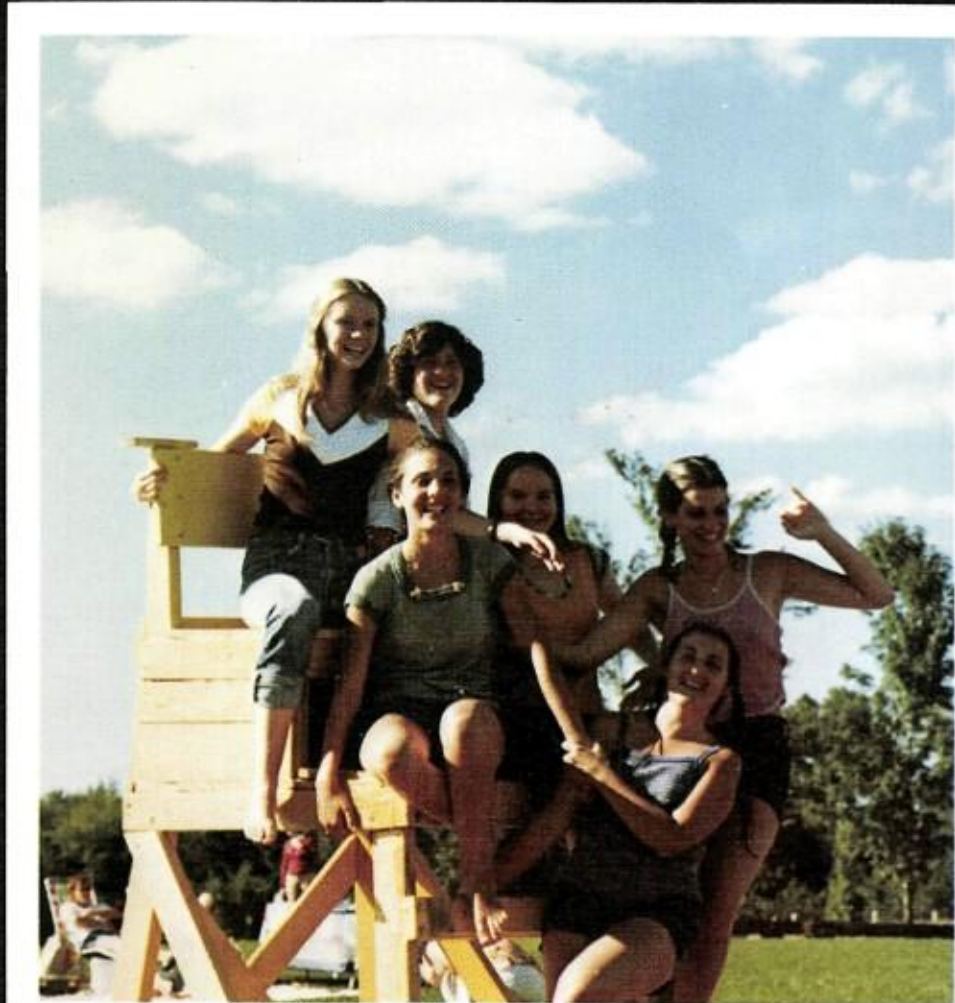

Friendships . . .

were born

Together as friends we experienced the laughter...

the romance.

In the end
we are left
with a sense of happiness
and accomplishment,

going forth
into the future
with our ideals.

At the end of the year, I.O.E. held a banquet at the Holiday Inn to celebrate the ending of a year's work of gaining office type experience. The Jr. Clerical program was under the direction of Miss Deltondo.

Marketing And Management

A day in the life of Joe "the drab" student. He comes to school at 8:00 a.m., muttering and cursing, for he is like all other students. Then, at 9:00, he slips into Maple Avenue School and PRESTO! Out comes Joe "future" businessman, out into the world he goes, with the help of his sidekick, Mr. Spano, fighting inexperience and poor job practice. Good working procedures prevail!!

The Cooperative Office Education program, directed by the hustling Mr. Murphy, gives students the necessary skills and experience they will need for their office work. Typing, shorthand, bookkeeping, and business math are just a part of the courses that benefit the COE students. The COE banquet, abounding with food and celebration, gave the students, their parents and employers the chance to appreciate the success of the COE program.

The Occupational Work Experience program promotes the idea that actual job experience and the benefits that go with it will enhance the students' ability to do a job well. Mr. Mistovich, the teacher-coordinator of the program, conducts the in-class portion and coordinates the "learn while you earn" concept of O.W.E.

STUDENT SCIENCE ASSOCIATION

S.S.A. suffered through Mr. Cramer's jokes, getting lost at Y.S.U., watching old W.C. Fields movies, hearing the phrase, "It's not a fit night out for man nor beast," and playing "uno." These Isaac Asimovs of the future added a lot to the Science Dept. of GHS.

CHESS CLUB

Those students who enjoyed concentration and intense strategy formed this year's chess team. Mrs. Light was club advisor for the first time this year. Club president Darrell Yeagley and fellow chess players strived throughout the season to utter that glorious word "checkmate."

BOYS' STATE GIRLS' STATE

Students chosen for Boys' and Girls' State, which is sponsored by the American Legion, Kiwanis, Rotary Clubs, and HHH and Griffith's Insurance Agencies, spent nine days participating in a government seminar on the state, county, and municipal levels where students campaigned, held caucuses, and finally formed and ran their own mock government. Distinguished guests included Governor Rhodes and Chief Justice William O'Neil.

ACADEMIC CHALLENGE

The 1978 Academic Challenge team consisted of veterans Tammy Martin and Orlando Corsale, seniors Tony Decello and Lisa Rowles, and junior Darrell Yeagley. Sixteen junior and senior students auditioned, answering questions in the categories of science, mathematics, history, English, and general knowledge. Because of fund cutbacks on the part of Ohio Edison, TV show sponsors, Girard was not chosen to compete, but those that made the team had the satisfaction of knowing they qualified for one of the school's biggest honors.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

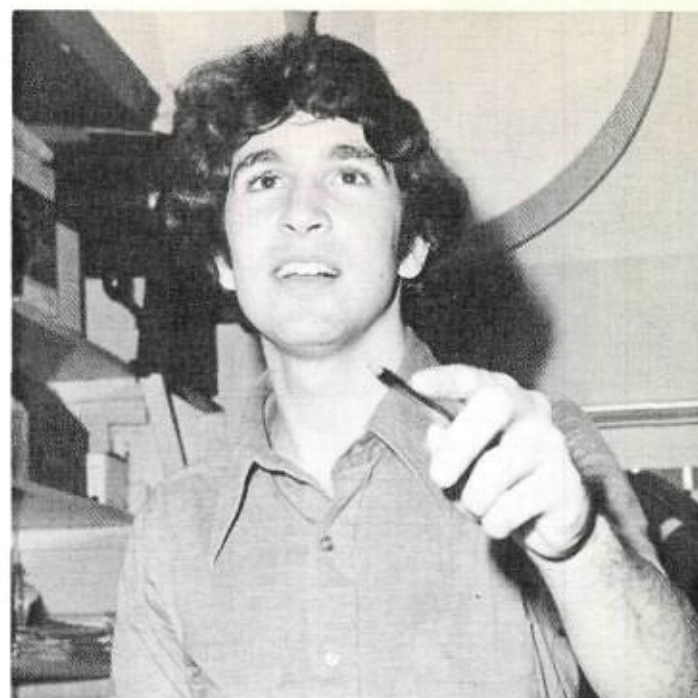

Members of the National Honor Society must meet the society's high standards for acceptance. To do this members must have a grade point of 3.0 or above and must be active in school affairs, and must have the four qualities necessary to be part of NHS: service, leadership, scholarship, and citizenship. Various activities of the society this past year included the pop bottle drive, and the new "Honor Banquet" which recognized all students who did well scholastically in their years at Girard.

DEBATE

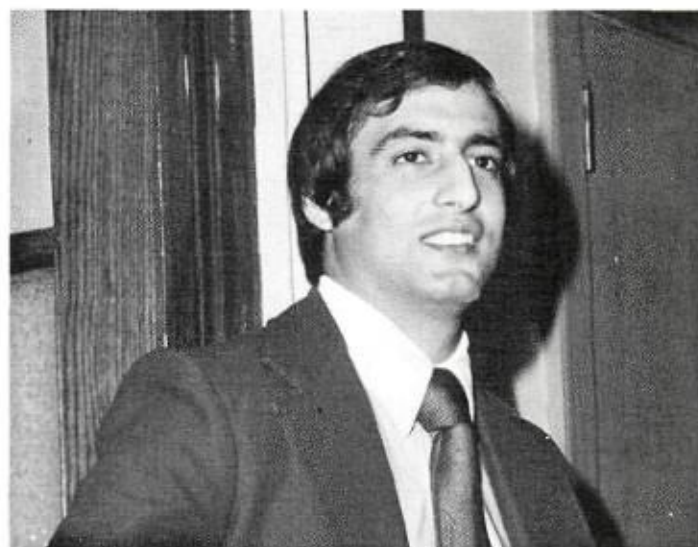

FRONT: A. Johnson, C. Aston, L. Maiorana BACK: E. Schmidt, J. Corsale, L. Kawecki, T. Lake, K. Griggs, D. O'Connell, T. Decello, A. Mehle

Organization, reasoning, speaking ability, quickness and working under pressure are what debate is all about. This year the resolution was, "Resolved: that the federal government should guarantee comprehensive medical care to every citizen of the United States." Captain Tony Decello and varsity competitors Terry Lake, A'Lynn Johnson, and Dan O'Connell backed by novice divisions competed against schools from around the state. Coached by Mr. Jeswald, the team kept its reputation as the best in the area.

Tony Decello—Captain & Four Year Vet.

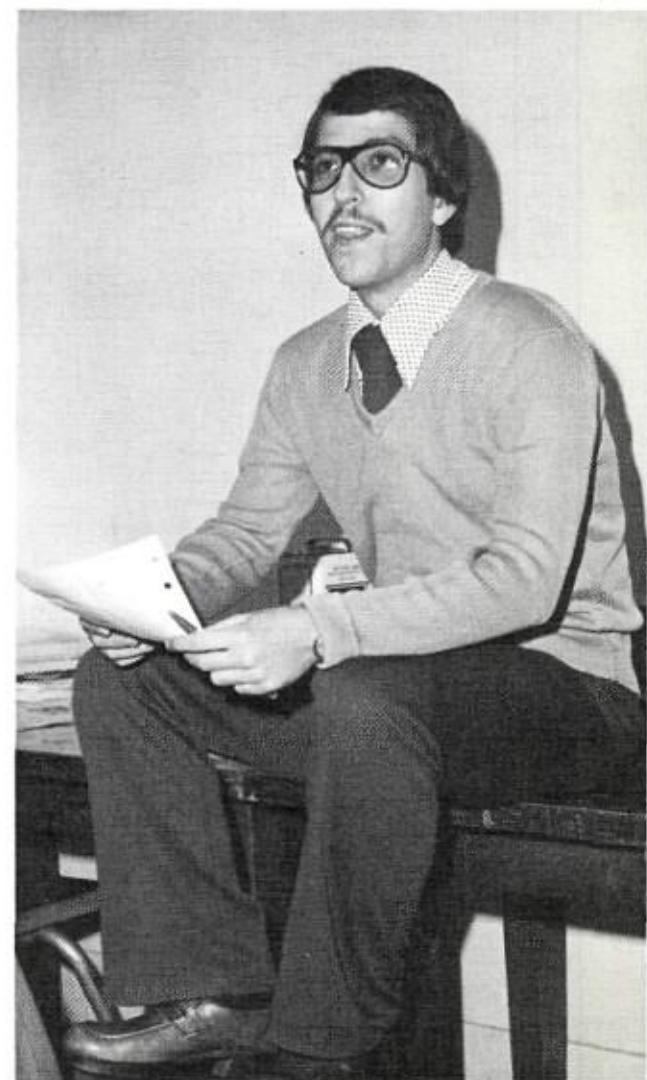

Coach Joseph Jeswald

Northeastern Ohio is the strongest speech area in the state and one of the strongest in the country. This was Girard's first speech team in many years, and the young and dedicated orators performed well against the experienced speakers in the area. The team, coached by Ron Infante, did speeches ranging from original speeches on child abuse and slavery, to reciting poetry and great literary works such as Shakespeares' "The Taming of the Shrew."

So this is Halloween!

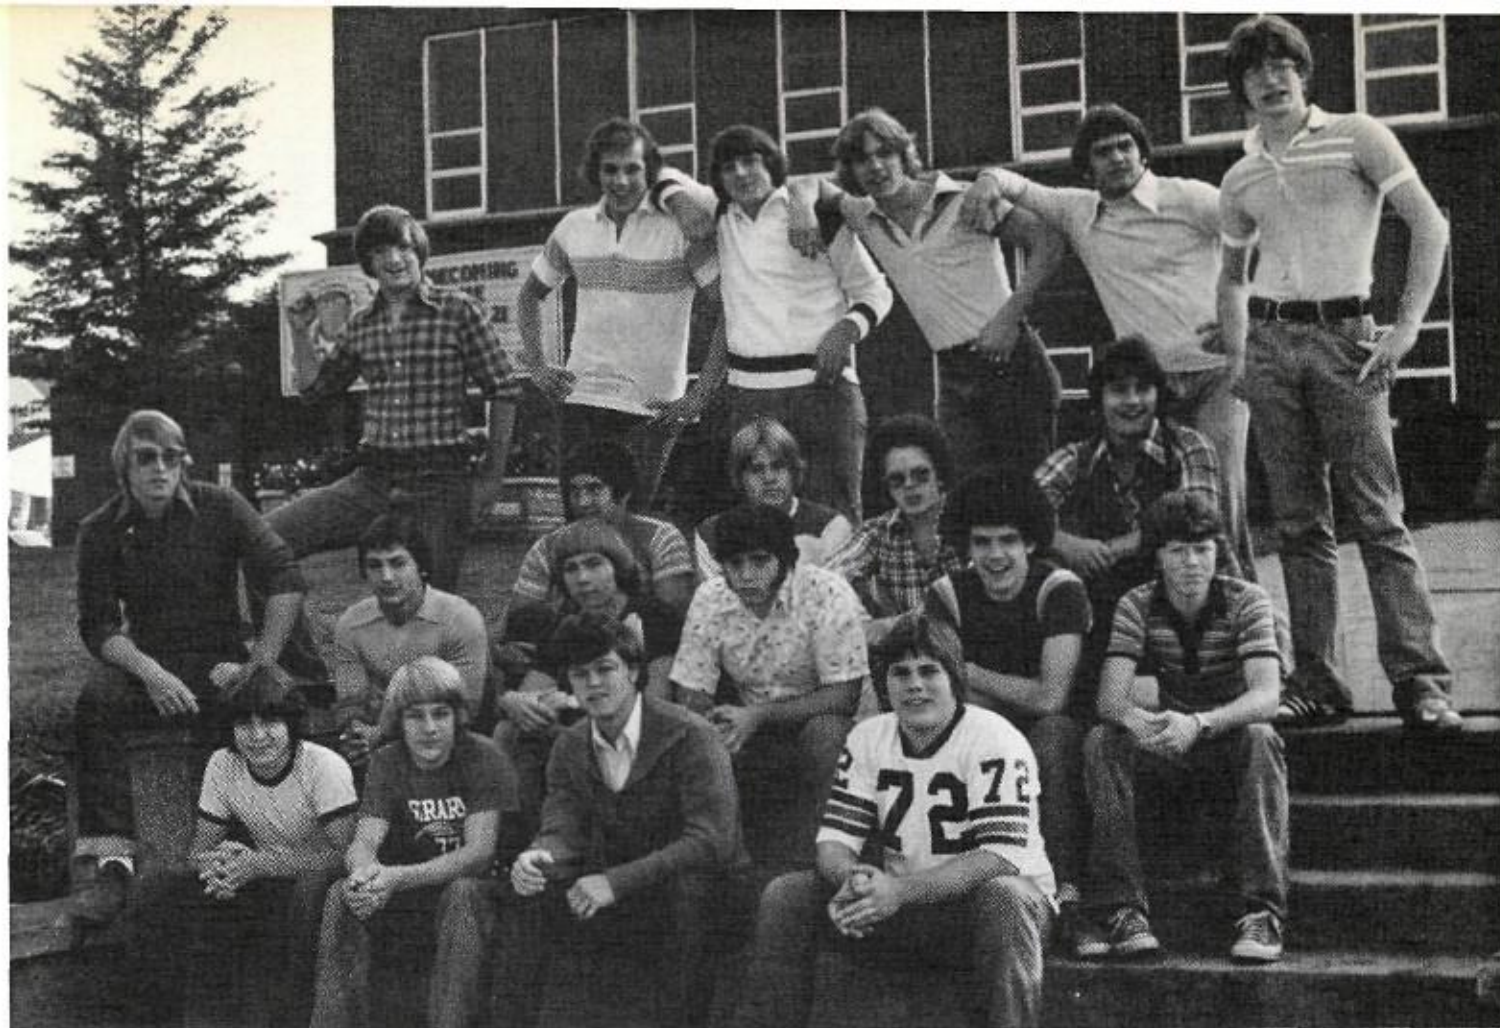

This year the American Field Service sponsored Manuel Batista. Manuel, from the Dominican Republic, loves macaroni and cheese, snow, Mrs. G. and girls. Steve Johnson added to our complexion problems by selling 113 Baby Ruth's, a new record! Manuel was initiated into the strange rites of apple-bobbing and pumpkin carving at the Halloween party. And no, drowning goldfish in punchbowls isn't a Christmas tradition.

Led by advisor Mr. MatuszwSKI, the ski club was the most popular club at GHS, with over 120 members.

The Italian Club repeated its success of last year. Once again the membership, under the guidance of Mr. Romito and president Lisa Rowles, was one of the largest at GHS. No wonder! All the members were protected by Mafia Mutual!

LA SOCIEDAD HONORARIA HISPANICA

Spanish Honor Society, a group of select students who have maintained a 3.3 average, brought to Girard High the Spanish and Mexican cultures—tacos, pinatas, and Christmas carols in Spanish on a foggy night. The big event was the annual Christmas banquet when members prepared a Spanish meal of paella and sangria for members and their families. Following the meal, they had a real laugh when they blindfolded their parents and steered them toward gaily decoated pinatas.

The Tribal Tribune led by editor Tony Decello and his assistant Maureen O'Connell, each month entertained and enlightened us. Layout editors Cindy Clow and Roberta "the clutz" Parker laid out such innovative articles as "The Meatman of the Month," Senior Spotlight, and "The Unknown Turkey." While secretary/treasurer Lisa Rowles raked in the money, sports editor Randy Stevens and cartoonist/photographer Terry Lake tied up the loose ends to make this year's Tribune a fine publication.

REFLECTOR STAFF

The officers of the '78 yearbook staff were a tenacious bunch.

There was Judy Barnes, the field marshal, who kept her sanity (most of it anyway) despite vigorous attempts by many who would rob her of it; and resident satirist Tony Decello, who, along with effervescent Terri Maiorana and Simon The Rogue Royer, directed the 90-member senior business staff in raising over $11,000; and Mary Ellen Ague who designed and layed out, and layed out, and layed out each page you see; and Terry Lake who wrote and rewrote the copy; and Karen Moderalli who typed it all several times; and photographer Tammy Martin who was kept at the simmering point most of the year by those who kept requesting that she take their pictures, then missed their appointments or turned into zombies when she pointed the camera at them; and Dennis Bartels, who did everything no one else could do.

They had their share of woes; took the blows; but through it all they kept their warm and comic vision of the world...and did it "their way."

This year's band was characterized by enthusiasm and pride. The band travelled to the Maple Leaf Festival at Clarion, Pa. in the fall. There they competed with twenty-six high school bands, two college bands, and five semi-professional bands in the same class and placed third. The band also went to the Ohio State Fair, band camp at Thiel College, and national competition at Niagara Falls. The seventy-two member group hosted the "Parade of Bands" which featured the Warren Junior Military Band and five other area high school bands.

Al Capp's characters come to life once a year at Girard High at Sadie Hawkins, the most unique dance of the year. Lil' Abner Dennis Bartels ran for dear life, but Daisy Mae Tricia Russell got her man. Enjoying each other's company

The plush Centennial Room of the Holiday Inn was the new location for the year's biggest social event. Two bands, "Ramblin' Sunshine" and "Rooti Kazooti", provided the entertainment and the couples really enjoyed their performances, staying and listening to the music until 3 a.m. The decorations, according to the theme "A Night in the Orient", were provided by dance sponsors, the junior class. Foreign exchange student Marjan Mohssenzadeh and senior Sal Ponzio were chosen to reign as queen and king.

SWEETHEART DANCE

IF I EVER LOSE THIS HEAVEN

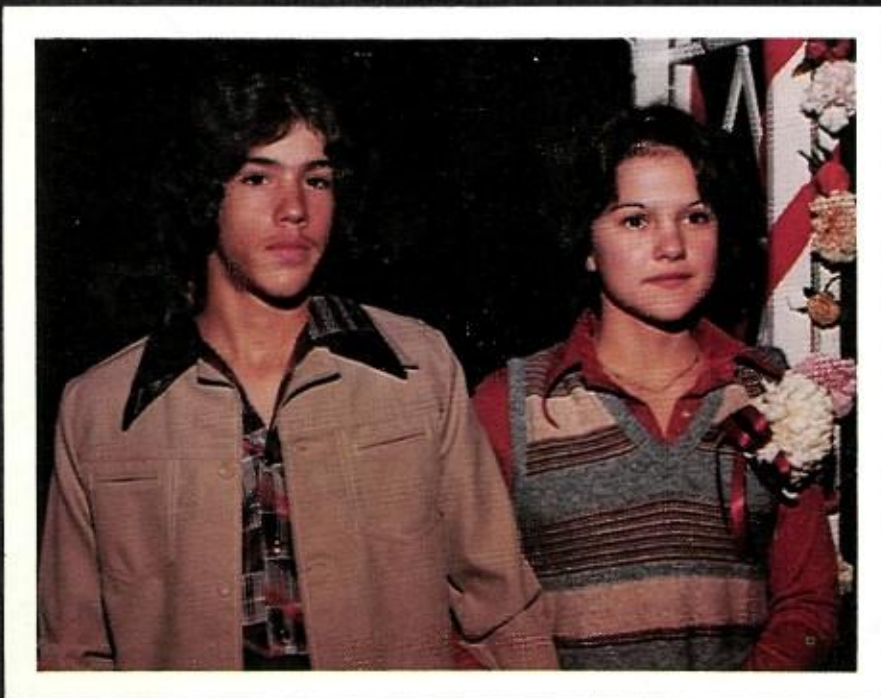

The annual Sweetheart dance is one of the unique dances at GHS as the girl has the chance to ask out her favorite guy. The class of '77 sponsored the dance and chose the theme "If I Ever Lose This Heaven." Entertainment was provided by the ever popular "Rooti Kazooti." Queen Chris Siciliano and escort Jim Moore, along with many couples of Girard, found the night of Feb. 12th one of the evenings they will always remember.

IN ACTION

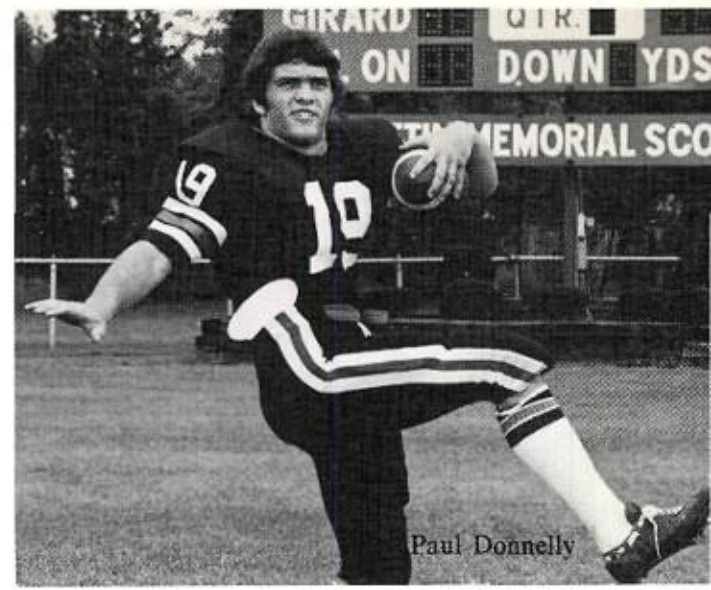

Coach Jamieson spurs on his team.

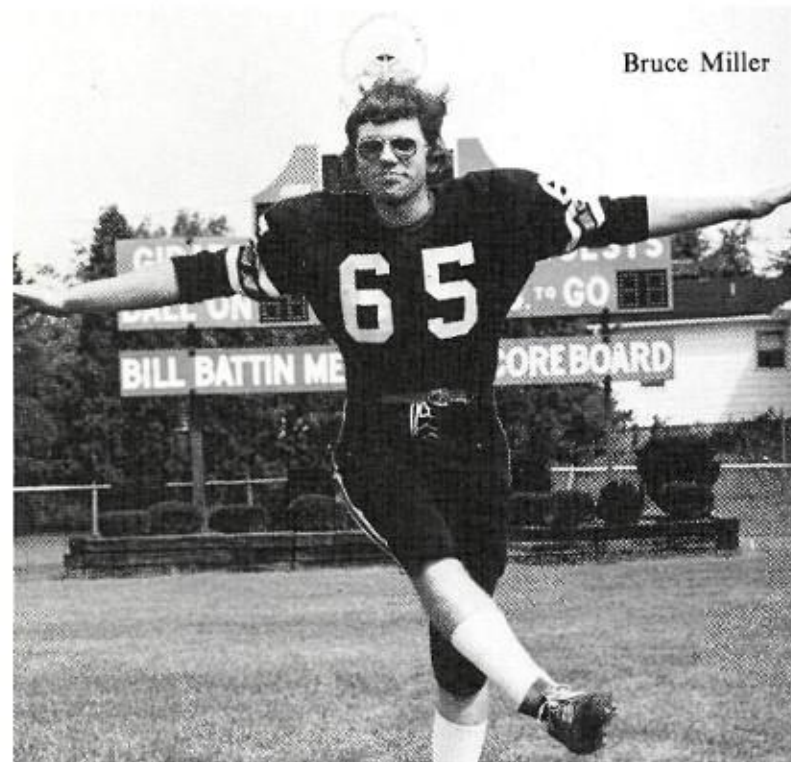

With only five lettermen returning, the 1977 season was one of rebuilding where the focus was on the future. Highlights of the season included an inspired game against heavily favored Niles, and a last second 8-7 victory over JFK, which featured an interception and 91 yard touchdown runback by Steve Johnson. Randy Stevens streaked in for the 2-point conversion. The captains for the year were senior vets Sean Martin, Pete Lucic, and Paul Donnelly. Dennis Bartels and Gary Paronish were named to the first squad of the MVC team and Dennis also made all North Eastern Ohio. Coaches Jamieson, Matkovich, Sanders, Jeswald, Ferrando, and trainer Ragozine made sure the team did not lose its RED PRIDE.

The girls' softball team under the coaching of Bonna Jean Wilkins and gratis coaches Sue Woodford, Rennie Palone and Mike DelBene, produced fine individual athletes. Co-captains Lona Cramer (.512) and Nanny Zirafi (.349), along with Joy Mushrush (.412) and Missy Rogers (.432) helped the team finish second in MVC with their power hitting (a combined average of .427!)

Felix Carmello and Joe Cappuzzello's tribe once again went to sectional tournaments, held this year at Warren's Crandall Park. Paced by leading sluggers Jody DiTunno (.328) and Mike Woytek (.367), the demons of the diamond were always in the race for the MVC Crown. The pitching by Gary Monico (4-2), Gary Hardway (4-3) and Rich Banyots (3-3) helped produce a winning season.

In their second year of existence, the girls' track team was the finest in the area. Coach Lymber's stars included discus thrower Sue Woodford, shot putter Lona Cramer, and high jumper Lisa Rowles. Long jumper Colleen Kucynski set a new MVC record as did the 880 relay team. Other highlights included a victory over defending MVC champs Canfield, a trip to the sectionals at Austintown, and to the districts at Kent Roosevelt.

ON TRACKIN'

Track is a sport composed of individual effort, more so than most other sports. This year's trackers had a season worth remembering. Sprinter Dwayne Shavers bolted his way down the 100 yard stretch to tie the school record of 10.1 seconds. High jumpers Ralph Griffiths and Louie Scarnecchia took aim at the existing school record of 6'2" and, by the time the season was over, Ralph had tied it and Lou had set a new record of 6'4". Lou also had the honor of finishing first at the sectionals at Girard and then going on to compete in the districts at Kent Roosevelt. Four-forty runner Dave Kermec also qualified for the districts as he, too, had a rewarding season.

Since John was not able to help pace his team, underclassmen developed talent for future years.

The golf team is consistently one of the better teams at GHS as shown by its second consecutive trip to the sectionals held this year at Avalon Lakes, where they placed third in a field of twenty. The team, led by senior Steve Pruneski and junior Jim Standohar swung into action with wins over MVC rivals JFK and Liberty. The defending conference champions in basketball played this season with one returning letterman, senior captain Steve Pruneski. Steve led the team and the conference in scoring (20.1 points per game!) and was supported by senior Jim DelBene and three starting juniors. Dave Cernich led the league in free throws and field goals with Steve a close second.

Coach Carmello's squad, consisting of leading scorers Ed Grossbeck, Dean Weitzman, and Mike Masich, used this season to prepare for quality varsity teams in the future. Ed Grossbeck also led the team in rebounds with Chuck Forte and Mike Masich leading in assists. The highlight of the season was their 46-36 victory over rivals Liberty.

MANAGER: D. Kincaid

1st row: K. Thomas, J. Williams, P. Constantino, S. Zirafi, L. Cramer, D. Andrews 2nd row: Coach Gabriel, N. Gori, E. Davey, C. Niemczura, J. Mushrush, N. Zirafi

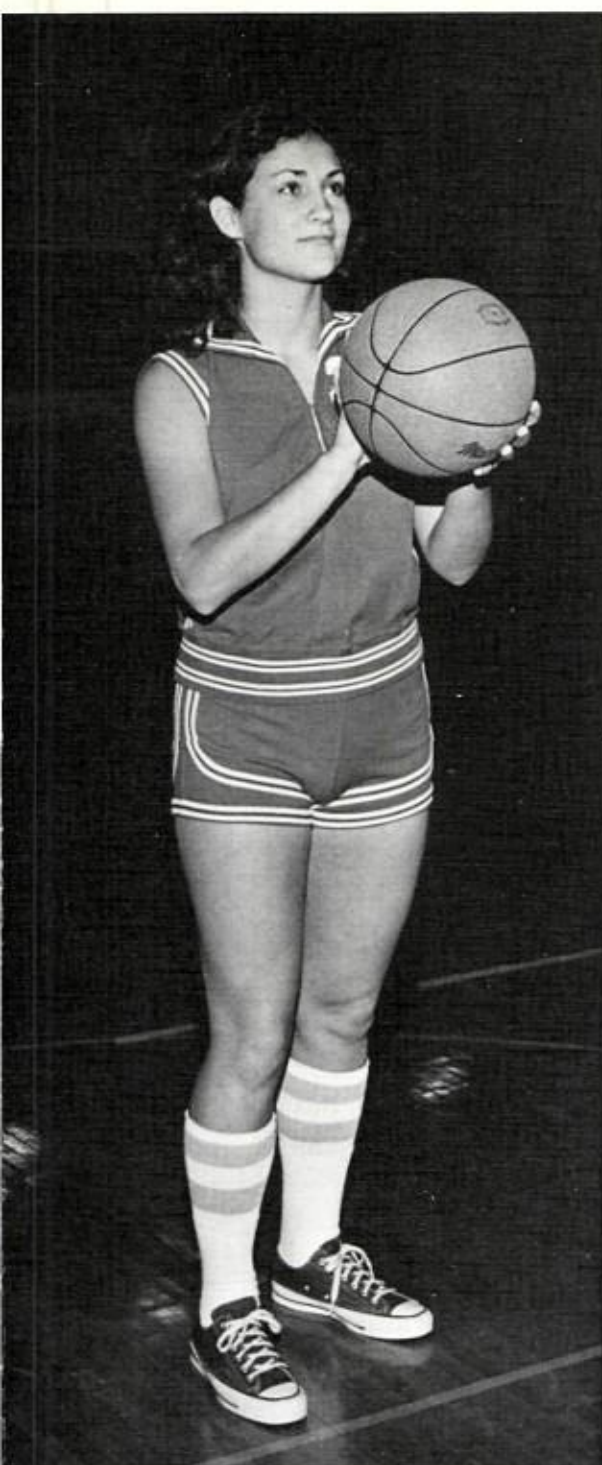

Coach Pete Gabriel

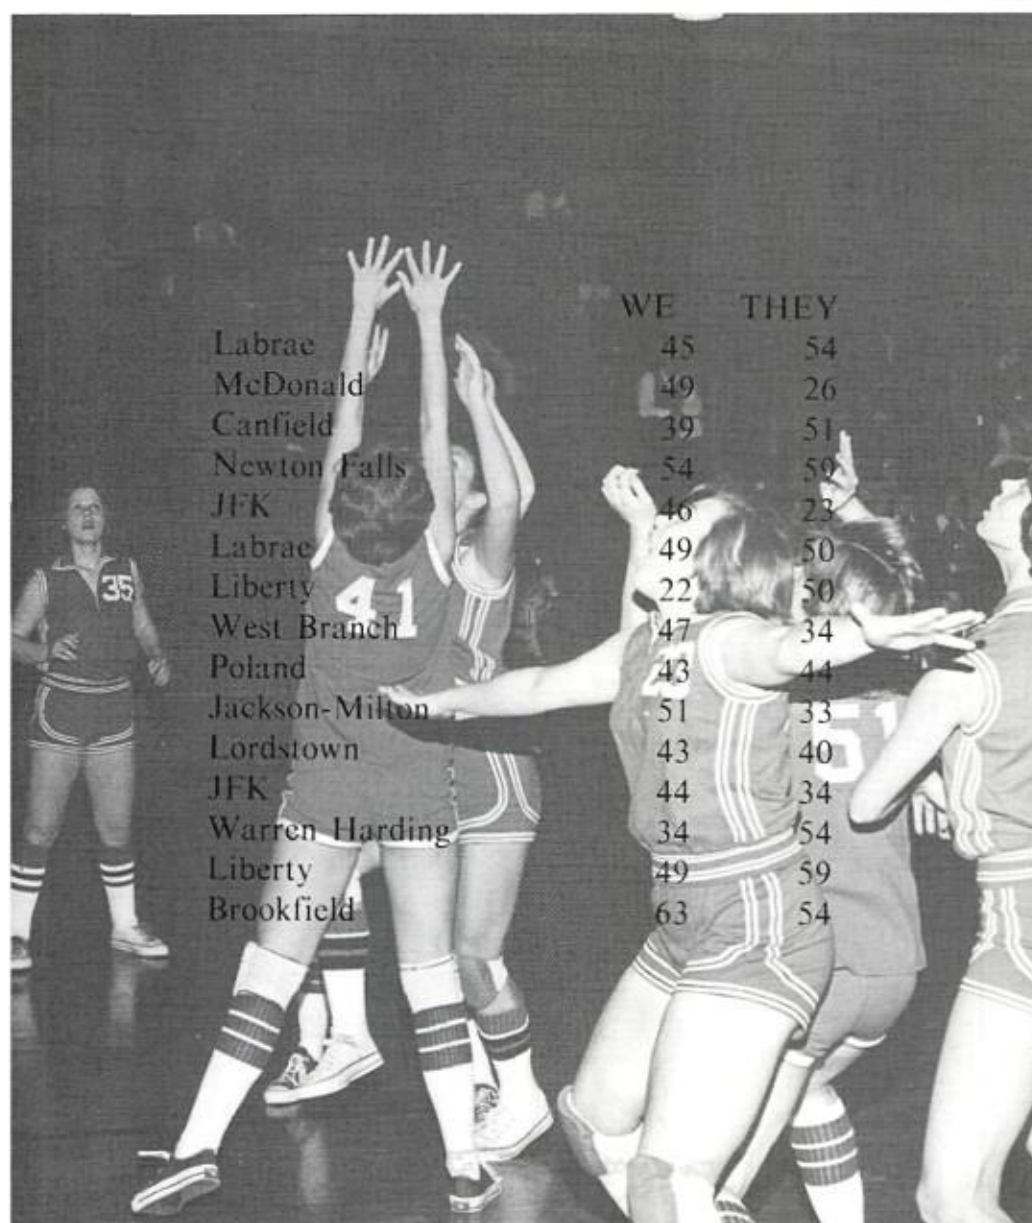

STATISTICIANS: R. Machingo, S. Criscione, R. Kincaid

Coach Pete Gabriel and tri-captains Lona Cramer, Nanny Zirafi and Joy Mushrush led the team in the MVC race like its never been led before. Lona was leading scorer with an average of 12 points per game and also held first place in foul shooting percentage. Joy was first in field goal attempts and averaged 11 points per game. Nanny, who played all positions and was expected to know everything, was a major stalwart of the varsity team. Underclass support came from junior Nancy Gori and sophomores Cindy Niemczura and Sue Zirafi, Nancy, known as Farrah Fawcett, saw a lot of varsity action and was a strong defensive player. Cindy, (Dr. J), the tallest on the team (5'11"), led the team in rebounding and, with only one year experience, did an outstanding job. Of course, Boston had Havlicek, but Girard has Sue, better known as "Hondo" or Suska. The all-around combination of youth, experience, and hard work allowed the team to finish highly ranked in the MVC.

AND SUCCESS

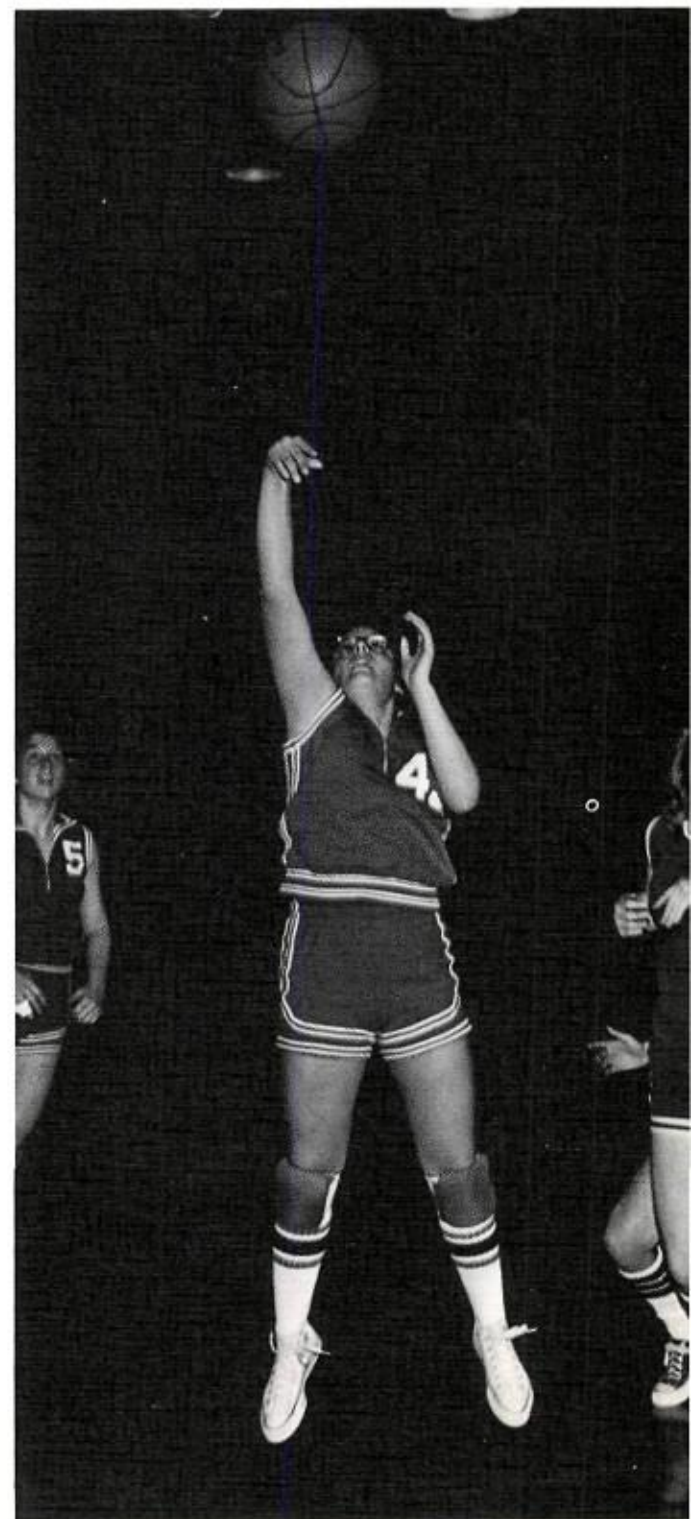

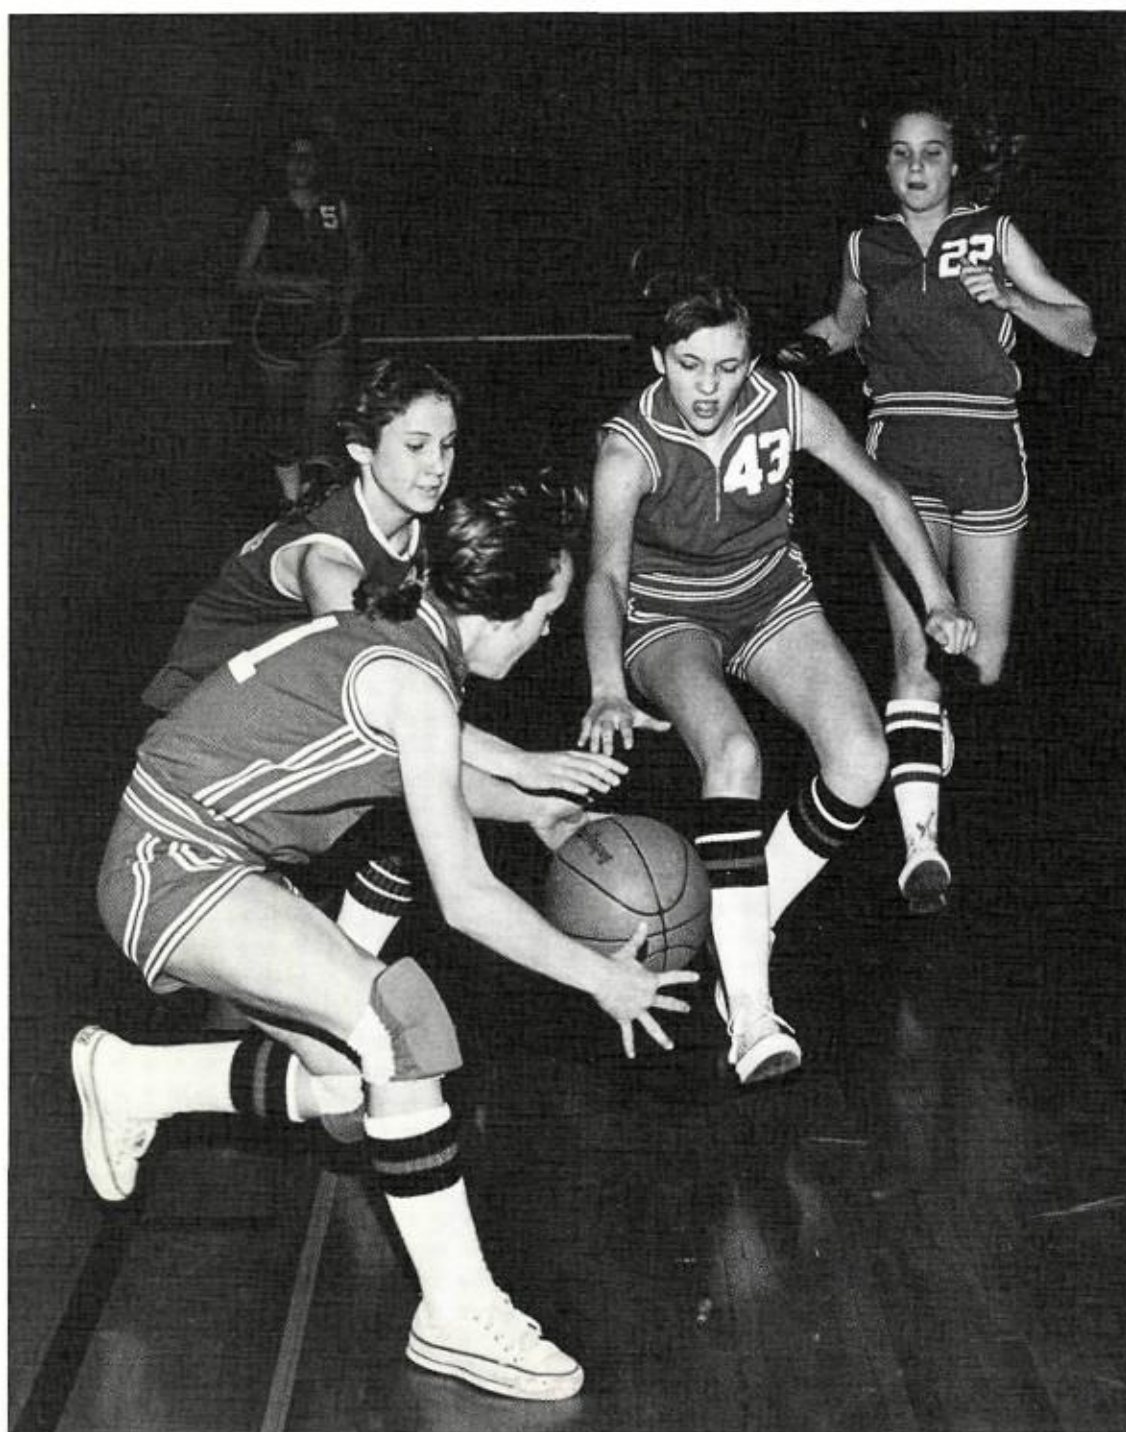

GIRLS' JUNIOR VARSITY

Under the coaching of Pete Gabriel, the Girls' Jr. Varsity squad received valuable experience while learning the fundamentals of the game. With nick names such as "Limpy," "Chubby Ankles," "Hard-head," "Pig-tails," and "The Derriere" (representing Diane Andrews, Peg Constantino, Eva Davey, Lisa Riley, and Jan Williams respectively), the JV Girls' Basketball team added color to the array of sports at GHS. Mrs. Jay chaperoned the squad (and the Varsity team also).

TEAM MEMBERS: L. Riley, P. Constantino, B. O'Neil, T. Strines, K. Thomas, D. McClellan, S. Glass, D. Williams, Williams, E. Davey, D. Andrews, N. Ponzio

We present this book
to Mr. Herb Cramer, teacher and friend, as a token of our appreciation for the time and talents which he has spent to make our time here at GHS so meaningful.

Many people have contributed greatly to this book. My endless thanks goes out to the team that created this edition, the editorial staff; to Mary Ellen, whose talent, dedication, and long hours are evidenced in the 240 pages of layouts; to Karen, whose enthusiasm and ideas never ran out; to Tammy, whose planning, dependability, and creative photographs added much; to Dennis, who was always there to do the "one-thousand and one" odd jobs that kept things running smoothly; to Terry, whose sense of humor (however warped) kept us all laughing; and to their families. To the business staff, Tony and his assistants Terri and Simon, who did such an efficient job directing the sales campaign; to the seniors who sold ads and the patrons and businesses that supported us; to Don Shelley, for the benefit of his experience, advice, and generosity; to Walsworth sales representative Pete Prentner, for his professional advice; to our photographer, Bob Knuff, whose artistic works you see throughout the book; to the administration and staff, for their total co-operation; and to Mike Varvaris and Tom Kolic of THE GIRARD NEWS.

A very special thanks to Janice Boyee, who designed the Indian on the cover.

We've left our footprints at GHS. We can't ever walk this path in quite the same way, but whenever we want to remember our walk here, we have the pages of this book.

Good luck on your own paths ahead.

God Bless,

Indy
